

dollars for liquor license for Edward W. Bennett for the year 1905-1906, but never received said license, and that subsequent thereto, the said Edward W. Bennett concluded not to avail himself of, or accept said license, whereupon application was made to the clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore county to have said license transferred to her, the said Maggie Lurz Hagan, she being at that time the wife of George Lurz, and having departed this life, she has become the wife of Joseph B. Hagan, but objection having been made to the transfer, or granting said license to her, the said Maggie Lurz Hagan, then Maggie Lurz, the Circuit Court for Baltimore county declined to order said transfer or permit the same.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the State Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant on the Treasurer in favor of Maggie Lurz Hagan for the sum of forty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($47.50), and the Treasurer is directed to pay the same, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of Baltimore county be and they are hereby authorized and directed to draw their warrant on the treasurer of Baltimore county in favor Maggie Lurz Hagan, for the sum of one hundred and fifty ($150.00) dollars, and the said treasurer of Baltimore county is directed to pay the sum out of any money in the county treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 373.

AN ACT for the benefit of Katherine Randall, widow of James Ryder Randall, the author of "Maryland, My Maryland."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the State Treasurer, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, be and he is hereby authorized and directed to pay an annual pension of six hundred dollars, in four equal instalments of one hundred and fifty dollars each, to Katherine Randall, widow of James Ryder Randall, the author of that far-famed war song, "Maryland, My Maryland," and who was a native of Maryland and of whom the people of his loved State were justly proud; provided, that the Comptroller of the Treasury shall require the said Katherine Randall, once in each quarter, reckoning from the date of the passage of this